

Driving licence

If you wish to drive a car in Estonia you need to get the driving licence of your country to be replaced with the Estonian driving licence. The institution in charge of with these matters in Estonia is Road Administration.

All information about driving licence and conditions of replacement are on the website of Road Administration.