1. Postgraduate scholarships in Colombia will have a maximum of twelve (12) months for specialization and twenty-four (24) months to master and up to thirty-six (36) months for doctorate. The scholarship holder of doctorates that last more than 3 years have to assume by themselves the allowance for the rest of the program. Nevertheless, the Colombian university will cover all the tuition fees during the whole program.

2. The scholarships are awarded on an annual term, for that reason, for more than 12 months academic programs (master and doctorate) the scholar must request an extension for his second year. The extension is subject to the requirements of the ICETEX. It is clear that ICETEX has no financial obligation to cover the economic expenses incurred once the academic program has ended. The scholarship does not cover the period of degree work, neither internships or field studies.

3. If for some reason the applicant renounces to the scholarship, a formal and justified letter must be sent by the applicant and may not apply in a period of two years to the call of scholarships for foreigners.

4. Applications from foreigners who are currently living in Colombia, who are studying graduate studies or working in Colombia will not be considered.

5. If the candidate is selected, the change of academic program or university is not allowed and the only letter that will be taken into account for the scholarship will be the initially letter submitted by the applicant.

6. For the selected students, the Government of Colombia will provide a courtesy visa, for that reason the selected student should not apply to a student visa. This status does not allow any work activity.

7. Under no circumstances the documents submitted by the candidate for this program will not be returned to the candidate.

8. The process of admission to Colombian universities has to be done by the applicant from their country of origin and before submitting the scholarship application to the ICETEX. Each candidate will be responsible for the cost of this procedure for admission to the respective university or universities.

9. The degree work or research work should be developed based on a priority issue for Colombia and completed within the regular period of study, since no additional extensions are granted for concluding it.

10. The deadline for the application is 1nd June 2018 (If the applicant didn't apply through the page, the application will not be evaluated by the committee). Required documents, which are detailed in this call, should be at ICETEX on the date indicated in the notice. No documents will be received outside the established dates.

11. The documents required in this call must be translated into Spanish. The translation must be official. It is not allowed that candidates translate the documents by themselves.

12. For the academic programs offered by the Colombian academic institutions involving the displacement of the student abroad of Colombia, the living expenses, health and others, shall be assumed by the student's own resources.

13. It is recommended to have sufficient resources to support living expenses during the first month and a half, equivalent to 950 USD

14. Candidates who have been granted a scholarship through the ICETEX must wait two years, counted from the date of completion of the program to reapply for another international scholarship of ICETEX.

15. Selected candidates must inform to the ICETEX the date of entry into the country 10 days before of the trip to Colombia.

16. The coverage of the scholarship is effective from the date of starting of academic program informed by the University in the admission letter. The scholarship does not cover any period before the program, or after the student complete the same period. If the student decides to travel before the costs will be covered with its own resources.
